Messrs. EDES & GILL,

FROM the account published in Draper's Gazette of the 26th ult. concerning the scene at Mr. Clarke's house the 17th preceding, the relater of the story would have the public believe, that a small number of invincible heroes had spread terror among a meer host of poltroons, and with the pop of one pistol, and a little insolent bluster, had so affrighted the rabble, that without receiving the least opposition they march'd off each one to his quarters, and left the mighty champions in possession of the fortress, which all their prowess for three quarters of an hour endeavoured to storm in vain.

Having from the very hour of the incident, endeavoured to inform myself of the principal movements in all sides of this formidable expedition, I shall venture to assure the public that the following relation of the affair is as authentic as could be collected from the best intelligence that could be obtained.

It is well known that upon the first effort to convince the Consignees that their accepting and endeavouring to execute their commission, would be so disagreeable to the people as to be totally impracticable; they treated the people with an air of contempt, and triumphed over what they affected to have believed, a defeat of their whole force. This naturally chagrin'd numbers who felt personal courage and bodily strength enough to cope with the bravest of those mighty conquerors, and made them wish for an opportunity to have a real trial of their merits in arms. Besides the obstinacy and haughtiness of the parties, and their apparent resolution to prosecute their own private advantages at the expence of the general ruin, led the number of persons who gathered before Mr. Clarke's gate to resolve to give him such an evidence of their uneasiness with his conduct, as might for his own sake, engage him to take some further thought about a matter of such interesting concernment to millions. It was with this view that being there collected about 8 o'clock, P. M. they huzza'd two or three times. A worthy gentleman, sustaining an important public office in the town, living near the place, immediately sent out to the people and requested their attention. A calm ensued, and he with another young gentleman living in the house with him, and also well respected by the people, requested them to suppress their resentment, at least for the present, as a Town-Meeting would undoubtedly take place on the morrow, where they hoped all would be settled to general satisfaction. The people not having before understood any thing of the intended meeting, seemed much quieted and appeared disposed to left the matter on that issue. At this juncture a billet of wood was thrown into the street and struck a person near to the first-mentioned peace maker; and he, doubtless concerning his efforts now useless and station dangerous, retired homewards, and heard a person from the house in a very boisterous tone, crying out "You Rascals, he gone or, I'll blow you brains out!" Upon this the people hiss'd and huzza'd, and thereupon a pistol was immediately fired from the house, which was followed by the onset complained of. Mr. ——— retired to his room retaining still a disposition to accommodate the affair, and a gentleman went round Mr. Clarke's house, and informed those within, that in case they could be assured there would be no more firing, they would still endeavor to prevail upon the people to disperse. On the Envoy's return, Mr. ——— again went among them and tried to quiet them. But they insisted that he should go and demand Mr. Clarke's resignation, as the term of their satisfaction. This he refused. They then further proposed he should go and engage Messieurs Clarkes to attend the town-meeting the next day. This Mr. ——— thinking a reasonable motion went to the house, and desired to see Mr. Clarke, who they told him, could not be spoke with; nay made him think he was not in the house. He then desired the two sons would attend the town-meeting, upon which he would dismiss them the people would disperse. They utterly refused compliance with this or any treaty with a people who they said had used them so ill. Mr. ——— urg'd they would return as soft an answer as they could, and considering circumstances pressed them to comply as far as possible. But they still refused, answering they were determined to defend themselves at all events. Some however mentioned that there were Ladies in the house very much distressed; and this furnishing Mr. ——— with an additional argument, he returned and told the people Mr. Clarke was not at home, and the whole effect of their further procedure would only distress a number of Ladies and the family to no good purpose; and on this they went off. If any part of this relation is disputed with the opponent's name to it, it will be confirmed in such manner as to shorten the debate effectually.

BOSTON, December 13.

Extract of a Letter from Holland, Sept. 20, 1773.

"WHAT I know of the sentiments concerning some leading persons and principal transactions in Europe, since I last wrote, I shall communicate—The King of Prussia has long since ceased to surprize us with his manœuvres, we think him capable of every thing, that will enrich his coffers and extend his dominion—As for moral obligations, they do not in fact bind your extraordinary genius; his Majesty of P—a is a genius, ergo &c. He has lately laid his thumb upon poor Dantzick, and imposed tolls upon it's harbour and trade, and those not light ones; they remonstrate and entreat, he in answer is not without reasons that satisfy himself whatever they may do them, and in a little time out of pure tenderness for the distressed Dantzickers he will take them under his government and protection, and then no doubt they will think themselves very happy, and pay their taxes with cheerfulness—Should he however accomplish this point, he will never be able to constitute any considerable naval force. The jealousy of the Swedes, Danes and Russians, will effectually prevent that; and should he attempt to form a fleet; would soon blow it out of the sea,

The seizure and division of Poland by him, Russia and the Emperor in conjunction, is one of the most barefaced strokes in politics that has ever yet been struck. The parties are so much above shame, that they hardly think it worth while to issue laboured reasons in their vindication: all they have given may be fairly reduced to these, they want it, and it is convenient for them to have it, I rejoice however in the event, on account of the poor poles, whose circumstances cannot but be considerably bettered by this exchange. They cannot possibly be more harrassed and enslaved than they have been (I mean the lower orders of the community, and especially the very numerous body of the peasantry) under the tyrannical oppressive government of their haughty aristocratical lords, who for ages have pulled all the rigours of the fendal system to their utmost extreme. Their new masters will for their own sakes indulge them with the sweets of property, and give them considerable degrees of civil liberty, in order to make them sonder of their new masters, and more effectually to crush their haughty old ones—and the different religious parties among them are indulged with a free toleration; this however is to be understood only of those who are under the government of Prussia and Russia, for the Emperor insists that all his districts shall be obliged to conform to the church of Rome. If this be true, it will contribute to people those parts that are possessed by the other two powers.

The Turks seem to be infatuated; they are continually losing battles, but will not listen to any proposals of peace. Their fleet has lately been defeated in the Palus Mæobis by that of the Russians, who immediately made themselves masters of the important city and fortress of Asoph, at the mouth of the river Don, which emties itself there into the Palus. Numbers of French officers are continually flocking into the Turkish service, which tends to support the Turks in their obstinacy, and will probably contribute in the end to the extinction of their empire in Europe, to which it is said the Emperor soon intends to lend a helping hand, by joining his forces with the Russians. France and Spain seem disposed in conjunction with Sardinia to fall upon the Imperial territories in Italy. If any thing prevents this stroke, which if it takes place may kindle up a general war in Europe, it will be the present embarrassed state of the French government, and the reduced one of its finances. Should a general war take place this republick will preserve a strict neutrality.

In the midst of these commotions it is the happiness of the world, that the Lord reigneth, that he takes the politicians of the Earth in their own craftiness, and uses either their good or evil purposes to accomplish his own wise designs. High as their opinion may be of their own wisdom or strength, they can effect nothing but what he pleases. I hope NORTH AMERICA will experience this truth in favor of their just liberties, notwithstanding all the efforts of an arbitrary, encroaching ministry, to abridge or crush them. I admire their spirit and resolution, and wish there was as much of it in Old as there seems to be in New England.

To Mr. HUTCHINSON.

WHEN a man in public ſtation, is firſt found tripping in his duty to his Sovereign, or againſt the Majeſty of the People! he is ſure to be advertiſed of it (IN A FREE STATE) firſt by diſtant hints; and gentle murmurs!—If he ſtill continues in the commiſſion of his faults, he is admoniſhed in plainer language!—But when he is found incorrigible in every ſtep he takes (as is your caſe!) he is aſſuredly dealt with, as the nature of his crimes require!——Strong corroſives are then thrown in; with a view no doubt, to get rid of ſuch a peſtilence as ſpeedily as poſſible.

All theſe ſtages ſir! you have moſt undoubtedly experienced, and brought on yourſelf!—And highly juſtifiable it is, that ſuch a culprit ſhould be treated with all poſſible ſeverity: but in deſpight of ſuch ſeverity, and all the laſhings you have heretofore experienced from every quarter! much—very much remains due from you to your ill-treated country! and ſuch, as you never can repay!

Upon this ground then, ſir! you muſt excuſe me, if I look upon you, as beneath the reſentment of a generous pen; I ſhall therefore paſs your foibles ſlightly over, without galling you, in the faſhionable ſtile; which in my poor opinion would have induced any man of the leaſt principles, feeling or modeſty, long ſince to have made his quietus, with a bare bodkin, except the unparalleled HUTCHINSON! whoſe character will ſtand in the annals of time, in much darker colours than even that of a Charles!—Unhappy man!—But as my intention reaches no further at preſent, than to give you a few neceſſary hints; I ſhall without much ceremony purſue my plan.

You confeſs ſir! you have wrote home to be recalled!—And it is well known you have been ſpeedily indulged in your requeſt.—This is putting the matter in the modeſteſt terms I am capable of; as I would by no means wiſh to diſturb the aſhes of the dead; by fooliſhly endeavouring to call your modeſty to the teſt!—Why then do you loſe a ſingle moment?—Believe one who has repeatedly whiſper'd in your ear many unerring truths; that the ſooner you take your departure, the better!—you know you cannot ſerve your ſovereign by longer delays;—nor indeed could I ever find, you had it once in contemplation! But this I can venture to aſſert; that every hour you delay your departure, the more you injure and embarraſs his affairs, by enraging the minds of his loyal ſubjects, with your repeated public inſults! and hourly PRIVATE injuries!: But ſir! take great caution, how you move one ſtep further—the people have been long agitated!—ſuffered much at your hands; and have been heretofore remarkably patient!—This cannot poſſibly be the Caſe much longer; and probably before you are aware, may call upon you, to pay that Tribute, they think due to their Sufferings!—I would therefore adviſe you, to go directly where you are now at liberty to retire to!—Then you will have a glorious opportunity of ſhewing your Sovereign—That THING!—that has alienated the affections of millions of his ſubjects, by an unremitting proceſs of tyranny and oppreſſion!

Sanctified ſir! your enemies (that is the whole community!) ſay you are buſied in the affairs of your Cubbs!—and cannot go where you are now invited to!—'till you ſee them in a fair way of compleating what you could not (to your great mortification) finiſh yourſelf: And here I verily believe you will act the ſincere part!—The very firſt inſtance, ſir! in which I could ever vouch for your probity!

But pray what buſineſs have you with the Tea affair, as Gov-r of this province?—Is it not meerly commercial?—the tranſition is quite eaſy! You have been many years uſed to deal in Tea!—Pray what Tea—? DUTCH Tea—! But thoſe are not DUTCH-Teas!——No matter for that;——they are TEAS conſigned the Children! who are the oſtenſible ſpectres!—but you are to finger the profits! ergo! You will pay as implicit obedience to the inſtructions of the India company, as ever you did to the inſtructions of Lord Hillsborough! and much more than you ever did in reality to the Lord of ————!! Oh! thou wondrous THING! all this flimſey gauze will not do;——the Exchequer is ever open'd——Sat verbum!—— Go then to thy lurking place, and think thyſelf what BALAAM'S pack carrier was!—for thou haſt loſt thy cunning:—give way to Limpet—a greater jeſuit it poſſible, and as bad a being as thou haſt been! who will at leaſt attempt to outdo, thy utmoſt outdoings.!!!

A FRIEND TO THE COMMUNITY.

P. S. If you do not very ſoon take your departure from this abuſed land, never to return again! I will ring you ſuch a peal about Dutch Tea, &c. as will make your ears tingle!!!!

At a Meeting of the Freeholders and other Inhabitants of Marblehead, qualified to vote in Town Affairs according to Law, duly warned and legally convened, the 7th Day of December, 1773, purſuant to Adjournment.

Deacon STEPHEN PHILLIPS

Being Moderator,

The following Reſolves were unanimouſly paſſed,

RESOLVED as the Opinion of this Town,

1. That Americans have a Right to be as free as any Inhabitants of the Earth; and to enjoy at all Times an uninterrupted Poſſeſſion of their Property.

2. That a Tax on Americans without their Conſent is a Meaſure deſtructive of their Freedom; reflecting the higheſt Diſhonour on their Reſolutions to ſupport it; tending to empoveriſh all who ſubmit to it; and enabling to dragoon and enſlave them all who receive it.

3. That the late Meaſures of the Eaſt-India Company in ſending to the Colonies their Tea loaded with a Duty for raiſing a Revenue from America, are to all Intents and Purpoſes ſo many Attempts in them and all employed by them to Tax Americans; and ſaid Company as well as their Factors for theſe daring Attacks upon the LIBERTIES of America, ſo long and reſolutely ſupported by the Colonies, are entitled to the higheſt Contempt, and ſevereſt Marks of Reſentment from every American.

4. Therefore RESOLVED, That the Proceedings of the brave Citizens of Boſton, and Inhabitants of other Towns in the Province, for oppoſing the Landing this Tea, are rational, generous and juſt: That they are highly honored and reſpected by this Town for their noble Firmneſs in Support of American Liberty; and that we are ready with our Lives and Intereſt to aſſiſt them in oppoſing theſe and all other Meaſures tending to enſlave our Country.

5. That Tea from Great-Britain, ſubject to a Duty, whether ſhipped by the Eaſt India Company or Imported by Perſons here, ſhall not be landed in this Town while we have the Means of oppoſing it; and that on every Attempt of this Kind immediate Notice ſhall be given to our Brethren in the Province.

6. And whereas the Tea Conſignees at Boſton, who perſiſt in refuſing to reſhip the Tea lately conſigned them by the Eaſt-India Company, have openly trifled with the Forbearance of that reſpectable Community, and thereby diſcovered themſelves void of Decency, Virtue or Honor.

Therefore Reſolved, That it is the Deſire of this Town to be free from the Company of ſuch unworthy Miſcreants; and its Determination to treat them wherever to be found with the Contempt which they merit; as well as to carry into Execution this Reſolution againſt all ſuch as may be any ways concern'd in landing Tea from Great-Britain thus rendered baneful by its Duty.

Voted, That the Committee of Correſpondence of this Town be deſired to obtain from the Town Clerk's Office, an atteſted Copy of this Day's Reſolves, and forward the ſame to the Committee of Correſpondence at Boſton.

A true Copy. Atteſted.

PHILADELPHIA, December 1.

The ship Polly, Capt. Ayres, with the Tea sent out by the East-India Company, to rivit the ministerial chains about our necks, sailed from Gravesend for the Downs the 27th of Sept. there to wait for a wind to sail for this Port.—Where, it is expected, should she ever arrive, she will meet with such a reception as will convince the world, that we are neither to be frightened, or cajoled out of our Liberty, by Nabobs, Ministers, or ministerial Hirelings.

NEW-YORK, December 6.

It having been reported, that the Hon. Henry White, Esq; A. Lott, Esq; and Mr. Benj. Booth, were appointed Commissioners for the Sale of Tea, intended to be sent to this Colony, by the East India Company; a Number of the Inhabitants of the City, met at the House of Captain Thomas Doran, on the 25th of November last, and appointed a Committee to wait on those Gentlemen, and desire to know of them, whether if they were appointed, they would act on the said Commission, or not? The Committee waited on them accordingly, and received the following Answer.

"GENTLEMEN,

At present we have received no Appointment from the East India Company, nor any certain Information on what Terms the Tea is to come out to this Colony.—When it arrives (if addressed to us) the Community shall be acquainted with the Conditions on which it is sent. Should the Tea be shipped, liable to the American Duty, we believe it is against the Sentiments of the Inhabitants, that it should be sold by us, or any other Person, and therefore we cannot execute the Commission; nor shall in any Respect act therein, contrary to the general Sense of our fellow Citizens.

New-York, November 25, 1773."

And on the Arrival of the Packet, the 30th of November, the said Gentlemen, having received certain Advice of their Appointment; at another Meeting, a Committee was again chosen to wait on them, and desire their positive Answer to the Questions before proposed; to which they gave the following Answer, which it is not doubted, will be satisfactory to the Public, viz.

"The Agents have find that the Tea will come, liable to the American Duty, and agreeable to their former Promise, have declined receiving and selling it, under that Predicament.

Letters were received by the Packet appointing the Hon. Henry White, Esq; Abraham Lott, Esq; and Mr. Benjamin Booth, Merchant, of this city, to be agents for the sale of the Tea shipped for this province, by the Hon. East-India Company, but there being a general opposition to the sale of it, as it stands charged with a duty payable in the Colonies, those gentlemen have declined receiving it; in consequence of which it will be taken into the protection of Government, and be deposited in the lower barracks. [Rivington's Gazetteer.]

BOSTON December 13.

Since our last arrived here Capt. Coffin, not only with the Plague (TEA) on board, but also with the Small-Pox—As Tea is of a Drawing Quality, 'tis suspected it has suck'd in the Distemper; and therefore if permitted to be landed, 'tis presumed there would be no Purchaser.

The East India Company's Tea Commissioners still remain immured at Castle William. Their Obstinacy has rendered them infinitely more obnoxious to their Countrymen than even the Stamp-Masters were—Their Zeal in the Cause against the Liberties of America, must be allowed to be indeed singular, for which their Names will be transmitted to Posterity with ten-fold Infamy. If Mr. Rotch the Owner of Captain Hall's Ship does not intend she shall depart DIRECTLY with the Tea she bro't, he ought explicitly to declare it, that the People may know what to depend upon, and how to conduct themselves. It does not appear that she is yet in Readiness, or that he has even made a Demand at the Custom-House for a Clearance. The Minds of the Publick are greatly irritated at his Delay hitherto to take this necessary Step towards complying with their PEREMPTORY REQUISITION.

Captain Angus arrived at Plymouth last Saturday from London, has brought Prints to the 15 h of October, which contain nothing new. In him came Passengers, Capt. Robson, Mr. Edmund Quincy of Stoughtonham, Mr. John Bromfield of Newbury-Port, Capt. Eaton of Portsmouth, and Mr. Bright of Kennebeck.

To our utter astonishment, confusion, panick, distress, &c. &c. &c. we are advised by a gentleman trembling for the safety of the world—That the terrific illustrious and most numerous armies now cooped up in Castle-William to countenance, and protect the discomfited—Tribe of Pensioners, Placemen, Commissioners and Consignees there resident, have cleaned and loaded their muskets, have charged the cannon, even the 42 pounders—have stationed a large battalion on Governor's Island, and planted artillery there; and that his Excellency the Hon. John Montague, Rear Admiral of the Blue, has placed his formidable squadron with such address and thorough knowledge of naval operation as to alarm and terrify all America—The universal consternation at these important movements, is past description, and the Ladies are apprehensive that the musty Teas kindly conveyed to them from London will be crammed down their throats with all expedition.

BONONCHROTONTHOLOGOS.

MARRIED.] Mr. John Atkinson, Merchant, to Miss Betsey Storer, Daughter of Mr. Ebenezer Storer of this Town, Merchant.

By a Gentleman last from London we are told, that Americans are treating the Tea just as they expected in England.

We are credibly informed that Col. Lee of Marblehead is among the most zealous opposers of the present ministerial Manœuvre in crouding the detested Tea upon the Colonies in America.

We have received certain Intelligence that the virtuous Inhabitants of the District of Paxton, are much ashamed and uneasy under the contemptible Denomination of the Place of their Residence, and are taking Measures to petition the General Assembly at their next Session to change the Name of said District.

Saturday last arrived here Capt. Sam. Andrews in the Brig Nancy from Demerary, who on the 2d Nov. close on board the Island of Nevis, spoke with Capt. Thomas Kennedy in the Brig General Conway from New-York bound to Madeira, his Vessel being in a very leaky Condition; which in Lat. 37, N. & Long. 37, W. lost his Mainmast which obliged them to bear-away for the W. Indies.

Also Nov. 18, in Lat. 24, N. & Long. 66, W. spoke Capt. Lewis Sissell in the Sloop Sally from Rhode-Island bound to Jamaica, 20 Days out, all well on board.

Extract of a Letter from Philadelphia, Dec. 4, 1773.

"Our Tea Consignees have all resign'd, and you need not fear; the Tea will not be landed here or at New-York. All that we fear is, that you will shrink at Boston. You have fail'd us in the Importation of Tea from London since the Non-importation Agreement, and we fear you will suffer this to be landed—If you suffer the Ships to haul in and land any Article of Goods whatever, you may depend it will be told in Philadelphia that you smuggled the Tea too. We remember heavily the Boxes fill'd with Brickbatts, &c. which were said to be Goods returned to London. Such Tricks (which were never publickly resented in Boston and PUNISHED) make your Enemies rejoice, and weaken the Confidence of your Friends.—May God give you Virtue enough to save the Liberties of your Country, and depend on it, it shall not betray them here."

Last Tuesday Evening departed this Life after a long Confinement, which he bore with christian Fortitude and resignation to the Divine Will, Mr. Ebenezer Lowell, in the 67 Year of his Age, formerly a noted Shop-keeper in this Town; he was a kind Husband, a tender Parent; and a sincere Friend to the Rights and Liberties of his Country.—His Remains were decently interred on Saturday last.

On Friday last died in the 27th Year of her Age, Mrs. JUDITH JOHONNOT, Wife of Mr. GABRIEL JOHONNOT, Merchant, of this Town, and eldest Daughter of the Rev'd. Dr. COOPER: a sensible virtuous, amiable Woman; who deserved and possessed the tenderest love of her Relations, and the esteem of her Acquaintance—Early impressed with the leading Principles of the Religion of Jesus, they were her guide and support in life, and in Death she derived from them a composure and hope, and gave to her Friends a consolation which nothing else could have afforded—Her remains are to be interred on Wednesday next at half past 3 o'Clock precisely.

Last Tuesday Evening being very dark, and rainy, Mr. Stephen Ingels, Shipwright, fell into the Dock, and was drowned.

Last Friday Evening being very Dark and Rainy Mr. Ezekiel Kent of Fox-Islands, formerly of Marshfield, having been on board a Sloop laying at Minot's T, to see an Acquaintance, about 6 o'Clock was returning to the Vessel to which he belonged, but unfortunately fell from the T, and was drowned. He was 27 Years of Age, and a Man well respected.

Also,

The same Evening, and about the same Time, one James Humphreys a free Negro, was sent with a Fish from Capt. Barrett's Sail-Loft, to one of the Journeymen's Lodgings, he fell from the Wharf and was drowned; and was discovered the next Day laying under Water, and the Fish just by him.

SALEM, December 7.

By what we can learn, from private Intelligence, as well as from the public Proceedings of a Number of principal Towns contiguous to the Capital, the PEOPLE, if opposed in their Proceedings with Respect to the Tea, are determined upon hazarding a Brush; therefore those who are willing to bear a Part in it, in preserving the Rights of this Country, would do well to get suitably prepared.

To Mr. HUTCHINSON.

WHEN a man in public ſtation, is firſt found tripping in his duty to his Sovereign, or againſt the Majeſty of the People! he is ſure to be adverti-ſed of it (IN A FREE STATE) firſt by diſtant hints; and gentle murmurs!—If he ſtill continues in the commiſſion of his faults, he is ad-moniſhed in plainer language!—But when he is found incorrigible in every ſtep he takes (as is your caſe!) he is aſſuredly dealt with, as the nature of his crimes require!——Strong coroſives are then thrown in; with a view no doubt, to get rid of ſuch a peſtilence as ſpeedily as poſſible.

All theſe ſtages ſir! you have moſt undoubted-ly experienced, and brought on yourſelf!—And highly juſtifiable it is, that ſuch a culprit ſhould be treated with all poſſible ſeverity: but in deſ-pight of ſuch ſeverity, and all the laſhings you have heretofore experienced from every quarter! —much—very much remains due from you to your ill-treated country! and ſuch, as you never can repay!

Upon this ground then, ſir! you muſt excuſe me, if I look upon you, as beneath the reſentment of a generous pen; I ſhall therefore paſs your foibles ſlightly over, without galling you, in the faſhionable ſtile; which in my poor opinion would have induced any man of the leaſt principles, feeling or modeſty, long ſince to have made his quietus, with a bare bodkin, except the unparallel-led HUTCHINSON! whoſe character will ſtand in the annals of time, in much darker colours than even that of a Charles!—Unhappy man!—But as my intention reaches no further at preſent, than to give you a few neceſſary hints; I ſhall without much ceremony purſue my plan.

You confeſs ſir! you have wrote home to be recalled!—And it is well known you have been ſpeedily indulged in your requeſt.—This is putting the matter in the modeſteſt terms I am capable of; as I would by no means wiſh to diſ-turb the aſhes of the dead; by fooliſhly endea-vouring to call your modeſty to the teſt!—Why then do you loſe a ſingle moment?—Believe one who has repeatedly whiſper'd in your ear many unerring truths; that the ſooner you take your departure, the better!—you know you cannot ſerve your ſovereign by longer delays;—nor in-deed could I ever find, you had it once in contem-plation! But this I can venture to aſſert; that every hour you delay your departure, the more you injure and embarraſs his affairs, by enraging the minds of his loyal ſubjects, with your repeat-ed public inſults! and hourly PRIVATE injuries!: But ſir! take great caution, how you move one ſtep further—the people have been long agitated! —ſuffered much at your hands; and have been heretofore remarkably patient!—This cannot poſ-ſibly be the Caſe much longer; and probably be-fore you are aware, may call upon you, to pay that Tribute, they think due to their Sufferings!—

I would therefore adviſe you, to go directly where you are now at liberty to retire to!—Then you will have a glorious opportunity of ſhewing your Sovereign—That THING!—that has alienat-ed the affections of millions of his ſubjects, by an unremitting proceſs of tyranny and oppreſſion!

Sanctified ſir! your enemies (that is the whole community!) ſay you are buſied in the affairs of your Cubbs!—and cannot go where you are now invited to!—'till you ſee them in a fair way of compleating what you could not (to your great mortification) finiſh yourſelf: And here I verily believe you will act the ſincere part!—The very firſt inſtance, ſir! in which I could ever vouch for your probity!

But pray what buſineſs have you with the Tea affair, as Gov*r* of this province?—Is it not meerly commercial?—the tranſition is quite eaſy! You have been many years uſed to deal in Tea!—Pray what Tea—? DUTCH Tea—! But thoſe are not DUTCH-Teas)!——No matter for that; ——they are TEAS conſigned the Children)! who are the oſtenſible ſpectres!—but you are to finger the profits! ergo! You will pay as implici-cit obedience to the inſtructions of the India company, as ever you did to the inſtructions of Lord Hillsborough! and much more than you ever did in reality to the Lord of ————!! Oh! thou wondrous THING! all this flimſey gauze will not do;——the Exchequer is ever open'd——Sat verbum!—— Go then to thy lurking place, and think thyſelf what BALAAM'S pack carrier was!—for thou haſt loſt thy cunning: —give way to Limpet—a greater jeſuit it poſſible, and as bad a being as thou haſt been! who will at leaſt attempt to outdo, thy utmoſt outdoings.!!!

A FRIEND TO THE COMMUNITY.

P. S. If you do not very ſoon take your de-parture from this abuſed land, never to return again! I will ring you ſuch a peal about Dutch Tea, &c. as will make your ears tingle!!!!

At a Meeting of the Freeholders and other Inha-bitants of Marblehead, qualified to vote in Town Affairs according to Law, duly warned and le-gally convened, the 7th Day of December, 1773, purſuant to Adjournment.

Deacon STEPHEN PHILLIPS
Being Moderator,

The following Reſolves were unanimouſly paſſed,

RESOLVED as the Opinion of this Town,

1. That Americans have a Right to be as free as any Inhabitants of the Earth; and to en-joy at all Times an uninterrupted Poſſeſſion of their Property.

2. That a Tax on Americans without their Conſent is a Meaſure deſtructive of their Freedom; reflecting the higheſt Diſhonour on their Reſolu-tions to ſupport it; tending to empoveriſh all who ſubmit to it; and enabling to dragoon and enſlave them all who receive it.

3. That the late Meaſures of the Eaſt-India Company in ſending to the Colonies their Tea loaded with a Duty for raiſing a Revenue from America, are to all Intents and Purpoſes ſo many Attempts in them and all employed by them to Tax Americans; and ſaid Company as well as their Factors for theſe daring Attacks upon the LIBERTIES of America, ſo long and reſolutely ſupported by the Colonies, are entitled to the higheſt Contempt, and ſevereſt Marks of Reſent-ment from every American.

4. Therefore RESOLVED, That the Proceed-ings of the brave Citizens of Boſton, and Inha-bitants of other Towns in the Province, for op-poſing the Landing this Tea, are rational, gene-rous and juſt: That they are highly honored and reſpected by this Town for their noble Firmneſs in Support of American Liberty; and that we are ready with our Lives and Intereſt to aſſiſt them in oppoſing theſe and all other Meaſures tending to enſlave our Country.

5. That Tea from Great-Britain, ſubject to a Duty, whether ſhipped by the Eaſt India Company or Imported by Perſons here, ſhall not be landed in this Town while we have the Means of oppoſ-ing it; and that on every Attempt of this Kind immediate Notice ſhall be given to our Brethren in the Province.

6. And whereas the Tea Conſignees at Boſton, who perſiſt in refuſing to reſhip the Tea lately conſigned them by the Eaſt-India Company, have openly trifled with the Forbearance of that reſpec-table Community, and thereby diſcovered them-ſelves void of Decency, Virtue or Honor.

Therefore Reſolved, That it is the Deſire of this Town to be free from the Company of ſuch un-worthy Miſcreants; and its Determination to treat them wherever to be found with the Contempt which they merit; as well as to carry into Execu-tion this Reſolution againſt all ſuch as may be any ways concern'd in landing Tea from Great-Britain thus rendered baneful by its Duty.

Voted, That the Committee of Correſpondence of this Town be deſired to obtain from the Town Clerk's Office, an atteſted Copy of this Day's Reſolves, and forward the ſame to the Committee of Correſpondence at Boſton.

A true Copy. Atteſted.

PHILADELPHIA, December 1.

The ship Polly, Capt. Ayres, with the Tea sent out by the East-India Company, to rivit the ministerial chains about our necks, sailed from Gravesend for the Downs the 27th of Sept. there to wait for a wind to sail for this Port.——Where, it is expected, should the ever arrive, she will meet with such a reception as will convince the world, that we are neither to be frightened, or cajoled out of our Liberty, by Nabobs, Ministers, or ministerial Hirelings.

NEW-YORK, December 6.

It having been reported, that the Hon. Henry White, Esq; A. Lott, Esq; and Mr. Benj. Booth, were appointed Commissioners for the Sale of Tea, intended to be sent to this Colony, by the East India Company; a Number of the Inhabitants of the City, met at the House of Captain Thomas Doran, on the 25th of November last, and appointed a Committee to wait on those Gentlemen, and desire to know of them, whether if they were appointed, they would act on the said Commission, or not? The Committee waited on them accordingly, and received the following Answer.

"GENTLEMEN,

AT present we have received no Appointment from the East India Company, nor any certain Information on what Terms the Tea is to come out to this Colony.——When it arrives (if addressed to us) the Commanity shall be acquainted with the Conditions on which it is sent. Should the Tea be shipped, liable to the American Duty, we believe it is against the Sentiments of the Inhabitants, that it should be sold by us, or any other Person, and therefore we cannot execute the Commission; nor shall in any Respect act therein, contrary to the general Sense of our fellow Citizens.

New-York, November 25, 1773."

And on the Arrival of the Packet, the 30th of November, the said Gentlemen, having received certain Advice of their Appointment; at another Meeting, a Committee was again chosen to wait on them, and desire their positive Answer to the Questions before proposed; to which they gave the following Answer, which it is not doubted, will be satisfactory to the Public, viz.

"The Agents since find that the Tea will come, liable to the American Duty, and agreeable to their former Promise, have declined receiving and selling it, under that Predicament.

Letters were received by the Packet appointing the Hon. Henry White, Esq; Abraham Lott, Esq; and Mr. Benjamin Booth, Merchant, of this city, to be agents for the sale of the Tea shipped for this province, by the Hon. East-India Company, but there being a general opposition to the sale of it, as it stands charged with a duty payable in the Colonies, those gentlemen have declined receiving it; in consequence of which it will be taken into the protection of Government, and be deposited in the lower barracks. [Rivington's Gazetteer.]

BOSTON December 13.

Since our last arrived here Capt. Coffin, not only with the Plague (TEA) on board, but also with the Small-Pox—As Tea is of a Drawing Quality, 'tis suspected it has suck'd in the Distemper; and therefore if permitted to be landed, 'tis presumed there would be no Purchaser.

The East India Company's Tea Commissioners still remain immured at Castle William. Their Obstinacy has rendered them infinitely more obnoxious to their Countrymen than even the Stamp-Masters were.--Their Zeal in the Cause against the Liberties of America, must be allowed to be indeed singular, for which their Names will be transmitted to Posterity with ten-fold Infamy. If Mr. Roteh the Owner of Captain Hall's Ship does not intend he shall depart DIRECTLY with the Tea she bro't, he ought explicitly to declare it, that the People may know what to depend upon, and how to conduct themselves. It does not appear that she is yet in Readiness, or that he has even made a Demand at the Custom-House for a Clearance. The Minds of the Publick are greatly irritated at his Delay hitherto to take this necessary Step towards complying with their PEREMPTORY REQUISITION.

We have received certain Intelligence that the virtuous Inhabitants of the District of Paxton, are much ashamed and uneasy under the contemptible Denomination of the Place of their Residence, and are taking Measures to petition the General Assembly at their next Session to change the Name of said District.

Saturday last arrived here Capt. Sam. Andrews in the Brig Nancy from Demerary, who on the 2d Nov. close on board the Island of Nevis, spoke with Capt. Thomas Kennedy in the Brig General Conway from New-York bound to Madeira, his Vessel being in a very leaky Condition; which in Lat. 37, N. & Long. 37, W. lost his Mainmast which obliged him to bear away for the W. Indies.

Also Nov. 18, in Lat. 24, N. & Long. 66, W. spoke Capt. Lewis Sissell in the Sloop Sally from Rhode-Island bound to Jamaica, 20 Days out, all well on board.

Extract of a Letter from Philadelphia, Dec. 4, 1773.

"Our Tea Consignees have all resign'd, and you need not fear; the Tea will not be landed here or at New-York. All that we fear is, that you will shrink at Boston. You have fail'd us in the Importation of Tea from London since the Non-importation Agreement, and we fear you will suffer this to be landed——If you suffer the Ships to haul in and land any Article of Goods whatever, you may depend it will be told in Philadelphia that you smuggled the Tea too. We remember heavily the Boxes fill'd with Brickbatts, &c. which were said to be Goods returned to London. Such Tricks (which were never publickly resented in Boston and PUBLISHED) make your Enemies rejoice, and weaken the Confidence of your Friends.——May God give you Virtue enough to save the Liberties of your Country, and depend on it, it shall not betray them here."

Last Tuesday Evening departed this Life after a long Confinement, which he bore with christian Fortitude and resignation to the Divine Will, Mr. Ebenezer Lowell, in the 67 Year of his Age, formerly a noted Shop-keeper in this Town; he was a kind Husband, a tender Parent; and a sincere Friend to the Rights and Liberties of his Country.—His Remains were decently interred on Saturday last.

On Friday last died in the 27th Year of her Age, Mrs. JUDITH JOHONNOT, Wife of Mr. GABRIEL JOHONNOT, Merchant, of this Town, and eldest Daughter of the Rev'd. Dr. COOPER: a sensible virtuous, amiable Woman; who deserved and possessed the tenderest love of her Relations, and the esteem of her Acquaintance—Early impressed with the leading Principles of the Religion of Jesus, they were her guide and support in life, and in Death she derived from them a composure and hope, and gave to her Friends a consolation which nothing else could have afforded—Her remains are to be interred on Wednesday next at half past 3 o'Clock precisely.

Last Tuesday Evening being very dark, and rainy, Mr. Stephen Ingels, Shipwright, fell into the Dock, and was drowned.

Last Friday Evening being very Dark and Rainy Mr. Ezekiel Kent of Fox-Islands, formerly of Marshfield, having been on board a Sloop laying at Minot's T, to see an Acquaintance, about 6 o'Clock was returning to the Vessel to which he belonged, but unfortunately fell from the T, and was drowned. He was 27 Years of Age, and a Man well respected. Also,

The same Evening, and about the same Time, one James Humphreys a free Negro, was sent with a Fish from Capt. Barrett's Sail-Loft, to one of the Journeymen's Lodgings, he fell from the Wharf and was drowned; and was discovered the next Day laying under Water, and the Fish just by him.

SALEM, December 7.

By what we can learn, from private Intelligence, as well as from the public Proceedings of a Number of principal Towns contiguous to the Capital, the PEOPLE, if opposed in their Proceedings with Respect to the Tea, are determined upon hazarding a Brush; therefore those who are willing to bear a Part in it, in preserving the Rights of this Country, would do well to get suitably prepared.

THE Brethren of the Honorable SOCIETY of FREE and ANCIENT ACCEPTED MASONS, are hereby Notified, That the most Worshipful JOSEPH WARREN, Esq; Grand Master of the Continent of America; intends to Celebrate the Feast of St. JOHN the Evangelist, on Monday the 27th December Inst. at FREE MASON'S HALL, Boston, where the Brethren are requested to attend the Festival.
